

Roxanne Watson

Roxanne Watson, founder of Living Water Rejuvenation Centers and California Coastal Cleansing Institute.

She has been a professional Colon Hydrotherapist since 1985 and a second-generation practitioner in the field.

She has been an active member of the I-ACT association continuously since 1995, serving on the board since 2017, and has been an I-ACT instructor since 1996.

She has held National Board certification/credentials since 2002.

Roxanne, is passionate about education, Roxanne has trained over a hundred successful therapists worldwide and is completing her studies to attain a Naturopathic degree.

Living Water Rejuvenation Centers, with four locations in Southern California, exemplify her commitment to holistic health and wellness through Colon Hydrotherapy.