

Senior Education (By invitation only):

The Senior Education Committee is dedicated to advancing I-ACT through continually reviewing and updating I-ACT's training materials.

Members: Roxanne Watson (Chair), Cathy Agasar (Co-Chair), France Robert, Tasha Roberts, Tiffany Jablonski, Sofia Reis, Dick Hoenninger, Kristi Rice, Chrissy Fong

Grievance (Per SOPs, Board Members only):

The Grievance Committee is responsible for fully investigating any formal grievance reported to the Home Office, and submit their determinations on the grievance to the Board for final approval and action. The Board will notify both parties of the outcome.

Members: Gail Palms (Chair), Lisa Garcia

Marketing/Membership:

The Marketing & Membership Committee advances the mission of I-ACT by promoting awareness, credibility, and growth of the colon hydrotherapy profession worldwide. We are dedicated to expanding our membership base, strengthening relationships with current members, and communicating the immense value of belonging to I-ACT. Through authentic storytelling, education, and visibility, we inspire both practitioners and the public to recognize I-ACT as the leading voice for colon hydrotherapy.

Members: Roxanne Watson (Chair), Cathy Agasar (Co-Chair), Lisa Garcia, France Robert, Tasha Roberts, Kristi Rice, Chrissy Fong

Mentorship (Sub-Committee of Membership/Marketing):

Members: Roxanne Watson (Chair), Cathy Agasar, Kristi Rice

Convention/Summit & Fundraising:

The Convention/Summit & Fundraising Committee safeguards the financial health of I-ACT while developing innovative strategies to sustain and expand the Association's future. Our mission is to deliver an annual convention/summit providing opportunities to educate, explore, and engage with our membership, and generate new streams of revenue through creative fundraising, partnerships, and member engagement.

Members: Gail Palms (Chair), Lisa Smith (Co-Chair), France Robert, Grace Adeoye, Krishna Culver, Dick Hoenninger, Kristi Rice, Chrissy Fong

Legislative:

The Legislative Committee exists to secure legal recognition, protection, and legitimacy for colon hydrotherapy practitioners across the United States and internationally. Its work ensures that our profession can grow without fear of arbitrary shutdowns, much like chiropractic, naturopathy, and acupuncture achieved through legislative advocacy in decades past.

Members: Wendy Sebastian (Chair), France Robert (Co-Chair), Darlene Holloway, Kristi Rice, Chrissy Fong

Research:

The Research Committee exists to strengthen the scientific foundation of colon hydrotherapy by gathering, evaluating, and producing credible evidence. Its purpose is to ensure the profession is grounded in validated data on safety, efficacy, digestive health, and clinical outcomes. This committee transforms clinical experience into scientific knowledge, elevating credibility with practitioners, health professionals, and the public.

Members: Mark Buse (Chair), Wendy Sebastian, Leanne Brown

International:

The International Committee is dedicated to expanding I-ACT's presence and influence beyond the United States. This committee fosters meaningful relationships with colon hydrotherapy professionals, associations, and integrative health organizations worldwide. Its role is to strengthen global collaboration, share best practices, and promote the legitimacy and professionalism of colon hydrotherapy in diverse cultural and regulatory environments.

Members: Gail Palms (Chair), Tasha Roberts, France Robert, Roxanne Clemence, Miosotis Gonzales, Kristi Rice
